Director,
Certified Public Accountants Firm

The RK Logistics Group specializes in the planning, implementation and coordination of all kinds of projects relating to transportation or logistics. As expert problem solvers, our goal is to find viable solutions to enable our clients to face any kind of business challenge. As project managers, we will work directly with your company's team to manage every type of project, large or small, from inception to completion.

In addition to our comprehensive transportation, warehouse and distribution services, we also provide staffing, payroll services and human resources expertise through Technical Temps, Inc., a unique staffing agency that is a family extension of our company.

Established in 1993, Technical Temps, Inc., a minority held business, is a major force in temp and temp-to-hire staffing in Silicon Valley. Whether you need clerical and administrative or light industrial or technical employees, Technical Temps can supply qualified, screened candidates to suit your company's requirements at www.technicaltemps.com.
