

Our Clients Success is Our Success

One of the key aspects that led to choosing the RK Group as our preferred logistics specialists is the personal attention we received on each and every shipment.

The service from the RK Group has continued to be extremely professional, competitive and comprehensive.

Customer Service Manager,
Medical Device Company

Our clients encompass companies from a variety of industries including semiconductor, beverages, communications, electronics, packaging, manufacturing, consumer goods, general commodities, medical equipment, biotech, pharmaceutical, disk drive, and perishables.

From the largest semiconductor company to the smallest machine shop, we are dedicated to providing our customers with superior, personalized service. As an independent, privately owned company, you can talk directly with decision makers who are focused on your specific needs. One call is all it takes for responsive service you can count on.
