The RK Logistics Group will coordinate all your trade show shipping needs to and from the show or show to show. Our experienced trade show specialists understand the importance of your exhibit materials arriving and departing on time and in perfect condition for the overall success of your show.

The RK Logistics Group will coordinate all aspects of pickup, transportation and delivery. Should you have a last minute change of plans, your RK customer service professional is the only person you need to contact. In fact, one phone call is all it takes to put our resources into action.

Our network of skilled, experienced, dependable drivers understand how to properly handle the unique requirements of crated, uncrated, padded, mixed or loose exhibits material and products. In addition, our drivers know the intricacies of every major convention center and hotel to ensure that your exhibit and display arrives on time.

Whether your exhibit needs require direct delivery to a show site or to a local warehouse, or if you are attending one show or are on tour for a designated time frame, The RK Logistics Group and its network of trade show experienced agents are fully capable of providing single-source control for all your transportation needs.
